First Tee Leadership Series With PGA TOUR Superstore

The First Tee Leadership Series in Partnership with PGA TOUR Superstore (PGATSS) will provide our teens the opportunity to build relationships with golf industry professionals and explore future career paths. The five-week series will encourage participants to explore and reflect on their personal values and strengths through interactive workshops led by PGATSS General Managers.

Additionally, the series will create a pathway for participating teens by providing mentors for them to consult with regarding future school and career options. First Tee teens who complete the five-week leadership series will be eligible to apply for the First Tee Leadership Summit at West Creek Ranch in Montana. The summit will be held annually.

Emma Bryant Signs With Pioneers

Eagle participant Emma Bryant signed her National Letter of Intent to play golf for the University of Denver Pioneers! We are very proud of all the hard work she has put in to achieve this. She is a great mentor to all of our younger participants! Way to go Emma!

Get Golf Ready Before The Season Starts

Off Season Golf Exercises

The fairways are brown. A thin layer of snow lines the greens. What can you do to get ready for your April tee-off?

During the off-season, it is a good idea to have a safe program of exercises to keep your body flexible and strong so you are ready for April to come. The golf swing combines a unique combination of motions. Proper execution of the golf swing requires appropriate flexibility and strength. Keeping that flexibility and strength over the winter can be the key to a good start to the golf season.
