Participant Corner

Davis Bryant, a First Tee – GVR alum, former Colorado State University golfer, and current professional golfer, has won the 2024 Inspirato Colorado Open. This victory, which comes with a $100,000 prize, marks a significant milestone in his professional career as he looks forward to competing against the world's best. Determined to take the next step, Davis is eager to pursue one of the various paths to earning a Tour card.

Davis has a deep-rooted connection to First Tee – GVR. His mother, Julie, is the Executive Director, and his father, Matt, is the PGA General Manager at Green Valley Ranch Golf Club. Davis has been part of the First Tee – GVR community since he was six years old, participating in programs and playing on the par-3 course. He credits First Tee for helping shape him into the person he is today. Even after aging out of the programs, Davis remains actively involved—volunteering as a coach, working in the cart barn, and serving as a standard bearer in the Colorado Open. His dedication to this golf course has never wavered.

In a full-circle moment, Davis Bryant is now the 2024 Inspirato Colorado Open Champion. We are excited to see Davis' next steps as he pursues bigger and better things in his professional golf career. To keep up with Davis, follow him on social media @dbryant0107.

Donor Spotlight

(Kirk and Grace Eberl)

Kirk and Grace Eberl

Founder of Eberl Claims Service

Kirk and Grace Eberl have supported the Colorado Open Golf Foundation since 2016. Kirk, an entrepreneur at heart, founded Eberl Claims Service from his living room in 1987. Over the next 25 years, Kirk and his team grew the company to over seventy full-time employees and 1,500 insurance adjusters, with offices in Lakewood, Dallas, and San Antonio.

In their eight years of supporting the Colorado Open Golf Foundation, Kirk and Grace have generously donated over $80,000. Notably, they were one of ten sponsors who made a 10-year commitment to increase the purse for the Colorado Opens in 2016. This raised the total purse from $150,000 to $250,000, with the winner receiving $100,000. This made it the largest State Open purse in the country, attracting top competitors from around the world.

Thank you, Kirk and Grace Eberl, for your involvement and support over the past eight years. Your generous contributions have not only helped the Colorado Open Golf Foundation thrive but have also elevated the tournament to new heights. By increasing the prize purse and attracting top talent from around the world, you've helped enhance the competitive spirit and prestige of the event. Your continued support is greatly appreciated and has made a lasting impact on the Colorado Open Golf Foundation.
