Participant Corner

The Colorado Golf Hall of Fame Annual Tournament at The Club at Ravenna is approaching on Monday, July 8th. This event supports the Golf History of Colorado Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization that oversees the Colorado Golf Hall of Fame. Representing First Tee – GVR in this tournament are Coach Brandon White, along with team members and First Tee – GVR participants Adelyn Westfall, JR Martinez, and Jack Clark. The format features 2 best balls per hole, and our accomplished participants ready to go low.

JR Martinez recently completed a 5-week leadership series at the PGA TOUR Superstore and achieved the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest in Boy Scouts. Adelyn Westfall is set to attend the First Tee Game Changers Academy in Minneapolis, MN next week, following her participation in the First Tee Leadership Academy in Atlanta, GA last year. Jack Clark, another accomplished First Tee participant, has been chosen for the First Tee Leadership Summit at the West Creek Ranch in Emigrant, MT.

Donor Spotlight

Jake Gilmore

Founder, President, and CEO of Gilmore Construction

Jake Gilmore, founder of Gilmore Construction and a dedicated member of the Green Valley Ranch community, has served on the Colorado Open Golf Foundation Board of Trustees since 2018. Since establishing his company in 1997, Jake has focused on empowering his employees, giving back to the community, mentoring smaller minority-owned businesses, and educating youth about opportunities in the construction industry.

Not only is his presence felt in the community among his peers, but also at the COGF and First Tee - GVR. Since joining the board seven years ago, Jake has been an exceptionally active member. He has contributed over $50,000 to First Tee - GVR, serves as the Vice Chairman of the Executive Committee, and is chairing the committee to build an Endowment Fund Honor Wall near the Patrick H. Hamill Learning Center. Despite all these commitments, Jake still finds time to attend Friday Play-Days and mentor our First Tee participants.

The honor wall will proudly showcase the names of all those who have contributed to the COGF endowment fund, which has surpassed the $2 million mark. Each donor will be honored with a unique plaque on a brick, creating a lasting tribute for everyone passing by to see. We can't wait to see the finished product.

Thank you, Jake, for your commitment to serving on the Board of Trustees and your dedication to the participants of First Tee – GVR. The last seven years have been invaluable, and we appreciate your support.
