It's Finished: The Honor Wall

The Honor Wall at the Patrick H. Hamill Learning Center continues to grow, and the latest updates have made the space look better than ever. We're excited to share a new photo that shows the completed layout and the impact of everyone who has already contributed.

There is still room for families who would like to be part of this project.

A $250 donation adds your family's name to a paver brick placed in the center walkway, creating a lasting tribute in a space visited by every participant and guest who comes through our doors. The gift can be spread over three years, and it qualifies for the Colorado Child Care Tax Credit, saving you up to 35 percent.

If you'd like to reserve your brick, please contact Program Coordinator Charlie Hall at CHall@ColoradoOpen.com.

Alumni Corner

Emma Stavely, a longtime participant at First Tee – Green Valley Ranch, is beginning an exciting new chapter as she heads out of state for college after being selected as a First Tee Scholar. The national scholarship recognizes participants for their leadership, character, and commitment to academic success while providing continued support throughout their college journey.

Emma embraced opportunities throughout her time in the program, building confidence, leadership, and goal setting skills that prepared her for this next step. Being named a First Tee Scholar reflects her hard work and readiness to take on new challenges in a new environment.

"First Tee and its national opportunities have had a strong impact on how I've prepared for college. Before becoming a First Tee National Scholar, I attended three national events and, since then, two scholarship events. Being surrounded by driven peers pushed me to grow academically, socially, and professionally.

More importantly, those experiences taught me how to build meaningful connections. Through conversations with students and professionals, I learned to step outside my comfort zone, ask questions, and form genuine relationships.

Now, attending college out of state, I rely on those same skills every day. First Tee prepared me to connect, collaborate, and seek out opportunities in a completely new environment, giving me the confidence to continue growing beyond my comfort zone."

Donor Spotlight

Oakwood Homes

Pat Hamill founded Oakwood Homes in 1991 and later established the Colorado Open Golf Foundation in 2003, which serves as the foundation for the work we do today at First Tee – Green Valley Ranch. His vision connected community building with the game of golf, creating opportunities that continue to impact thousands of young people each year.

Despite Mr. Hamill's sale of Oakwood Homes to Berkshire Hathaway's Clayton Homes in 2017, the company's commitment to First Tee has continued in a meaningful way. Since the sale, Oakwood's partnership has not wavered, contributing more than $360,000 by the end of this year in support of our programs and initiatives. Oakwood also serves as the presenting sponsor of the Colorado Open Championships hosted here at Green Valley Ranch, helping elevate Colorado's premier golf events while directly supporting opportunities for the young people we serve.

We are grateful for Oakwood Homes' continued partnership and their commitment to creating opportunities for our participants and the broader community.
